- (2) Disentanglement Services - the obligations of each Party imposed upon notice of Contract termination or expiration that are designed to extract and protect proprietary data, databases, and structure.

(b) Vendor must provide disentanglement services as soon as possible after Notice of Contract Termination or Contract expiration. The disentanglement period shall be for one month unless otherwise agreed upon. If disentanglement services cannot be completed during the agreed disentanglement period, Vendor must notify TJJJ in writing 14 days before the end of the disentanglement period and must include an explanation of the cause for delay and a proposed timeframe for completion.

- (c) Disentanglement services that Vendor must provide include: (1) Up-to-date documentation of data format and structure; and (2) documentation of what, if any, of Vendor's proprietary information is embedded within TJJD data. Vendor should also provide TJJD with their proprietary data in the same format and structure as used in Vendor's system before Contract termination. If Vendor is unwilling to provide data in the same format and structure, then Vendor must work with TJJD or a 3rd party of TJJD's choice to provide the data and appropriate documentation in an acceptable alternate format agreed to by TJJD. After completion of the aforementioned obligations, TJJD shall continue to allow Vendor access to its shared servers so Vendor may uninstall Vendor's software, databases, and proprietary data and information. After removal of all proprietary data, Vendor shall confirm removal with written certification of such.
- (d) Both Parties shall have full access to shared servers, including source code and technical documentation, during the disentanglement period. If any disagreement between the Parties arises before disentanglement services are completed, both Parties shall continue to have full access while seeking resolution.

25. Dispute Resolution

The dispute resolution process in Chapter 2260 of the Texas Government Code must be used to resolve any dispute arising under the Contract.

26. Dispute Resolution

Subject to Texas Government Code, Section 2260.002, the dispute resolution process provided for in Chapter 2260 of the Texas Government Code and set forth below in subsections (a)-(d) shall be used by the Parties to attempt to resolve all disputes arising under this Contract. In accordance with the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code, Section 114.005, the Parties agree claims encompassed by Texas Government Code, Section 2260.002(3) and Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code Section 114.002 shall be governed by the dispute resolution process set forth below in subsections (a)- (d).

- (a) Notwithstanding Texas Government Code, Chapter 2260.002(3) and Chapter 114.012 and any other statute or applicable law, if the Vendor's claim for breach of contract cannot be resolved by the Parties in the ordinary course of business, Vendor may make a claim against TJJD for breach of contract and TJJD may assert a counterclaim against the Vendor as is contemplated by Texas Government Code, Chapter 2260, Subchapter B. In such event, Vendor must provide written notice to TJJD of a claim for breach of the Contract not later than the 180th day after the date of the event giving rise to the claim. The notice must state with particularity: (1) the nature of the alleged breach; (2) the amount the Vendor seeks as damages; and (3) the legal theory of recovery.
- (b) The chief administrative officer, or if designated in the Contract, another officer of TJJD, shall examine the claim and any counterclaim and negotiate with the Vendor in an effort to resolve them. The negotiation must begin no later than the 120th day after the date the claim is received, as is contemplated by Texas Government Code, Chapter 2260, Section 2260.052.

- (c) If the negotiation under paragraph (b) above results in the resolution of some disputed issues by agreement or in a settlement, the Parties shall reduce the agreement or settlement to writing and each party shall sign the agreement or settlement. A partial settlement or resolution of a claim does not waive a Party's rights under this Contract as to the parts of the claim that are not resolved.
- (d) If a claim is not entirely resolved under paragraph (b) above, on or before the 270th day after the date the claim is filed with TJJD, unless the Parties agree in writing to an extension of time, the Parties may agree to mediate a claim made under this dispute resolution procedure. This dispute resolution procedure is the Vendor's sole and exclusive process for seeking a remedy for an alleged breach of contract by TJJD if the Parties are unable to resolve their disputes as described in this section.
- (e) Nothing in the Contract shall be construed as a waiver of the state's or TJJD's sovereign immunity. This Contract shall not constitute or be construed as a waiver of any of the privileges, rights, defenses, remedies, or immunities available to the State of Texas. The failure to enforce, or any delay in the enforcement, of any privileges, rights, defenses, remedies, or immunities available to the State of Texas under this Contract or under applicable law shall not constitute a waiver of such privileges, rights, defenses, remedies or immunities or be considered as a basis for estoppel. TJJD does not waive any privileges, rights, defenses, or immunities available to TJJD by entering into this Contract or by its conduct, or by the conduct of any representative of TJJD, prior to or subsequent to entering into this Contract.
- (f) Compliance with the dispute resolution process provided for in Texas Government Code, Chapter 2260, subchapter B and incorporated by reference in subsection (a)-(d) above is a condition precedent to the Vendor:
 - (1) filing suit pursuant to Chapter 114 of the Civil Practices and Remedies Code; or
 - (2) initiating a contested case hearing pursuant to Subchapter C of Chapter 2260 of the Texas Government Code.

If it is determined that Vendor has violated the certifications set forth in this provision, then (1) Vendor shall be in breach of contract, (2) TJJD shall have the option to terminate the

In the event of a termination or cancellation under this Section, TJJD will not be liable to Vendor for any damages, that are caused or associated with such termination, or cancellation, and TJJD will not be required to give prior notice.

TJJJ may require, at Vendor's sole cost and expense, independent audits by a qualified certified public accounting firm of Vendor's books and records or the State's property. In no event shall this provision relieve Vendor of the responsibility for ensuring that the services performed under all subcontracts are rendered in compliance with this Contract.

76. Survival

Expiration or termination of the Contract for any reason does not release Vendor from any liability or obligation set forth in the Contract that is expressly stated to survive any such expiration or termination, that by its nature would be intended to be applicable following any such expiration or termination, or that is necessary to fulfill the essential purpose of the Contract, including without limitation the provisions regarding warranty, indemnification, confidentiality, and rights and remedies upon termination.

in addition to any other rights and remedies provided in equity, by law, or under this Contract. TJJD may exercise any other right, remedy, or privilege available to it under applicable law or may proceed by appropriate court action to enforce the provisions of this Contract. The exercise of any of the foregoing remedies will not constitute a termination of this Contract unless TJJD notifies Vendor in writing prior to the exercise of such remedy.
