2. Review the Youth's TJJD assessment, prior treatment plans, and discharge/transition summary or other treatment records and recommendations for treatment based on the Youth's risk and protective factors prior to implementing services.
3. Conduct an initial interview with the Youth to determine the Youth's understanding and acceptance of the house rules and expectations for placement and developing the Youth's host home care plan.
4. Service Provider will conduct a life skills assessment to guide youth toward developing healthy, productive lives using the Casey Life Skills assessment (CLS). CLS is a set of free tools that assess the independent skills youth need to achieve their long-term goals.
Areas that will be evaluated are:
 - a. daily living and self-care activities;
 - b. maintaining healthy relationships;
 - c. work and study habits;
 - d. using community resources;

- e. money management;
- f. computer literacy and online safety;
- g. civic engagement; and
- h. navigating the child welfare system.

The CLS assessment will be administered at baseline "either before placement or within 30-days of placement", and at 6-month intervals. If youth is discharged from care before a 6-month reassessment is conducted, the service provider will attempt to conduct a reassessment if applicable.

5. The service provider will ensure the youth has a Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths (CANS) assessment conducted at baseline. CANS is a multi-purpose tool used to evaluate the needs and strengths of children and adolescents, particularly in the context of child welfare and behavioral health services. CANS helps in decision-making, service planning, and monitoring outcomes by providing a structured way to assess an individual's needs and strengths, and then using that information to inform care and support. CANS assessment categories are Life Domain Functioning, Behavioral/Emotional Needs, Risk Behaviors, Child/Youth Strengths, and Caregiver Needs & Resources.

The selected curriculum must be submitted via email to the Program Supervisor at least 15 working days before the youth is placed at the Short-Term Host Housing site. After the TJJD review process is completed, the service provider will receive an email from the Program Supervisor of Contract Care and Placement indicating whether the curriculum has been approved or denied. If the placement location has an established and previously approved curriculum, the services provider may use the curriculum without undergoing a new review.

IL psychoeducational skill development must be facilitated once a week for 60 minutes through psychoeducational training.

7. Service Provider agrees to provide supported employment services to youth when necessary. Supported employment will assist youth with finding and maintaining competitive, integrated employment with ongoing support services. This will include help for youth in preparing a resume, completing a job application, and conducting internet searches for employment options.

EXHIBIT C

Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) and Preventing Sexual Misconduct Policy Overview and Training Acknowledgment for TJJJ's Contract Service Providers

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) was created to eliminate sexual violence within corrections. PREA mandates apply to all TJJJ institutions, community-based corrections, and contract facilities. TJJJ volunteers and service providers are also subject to this law. Among other things, PREA establishes a zero-tolerance standard for sexual violence in corrections in the United States and increases the accountability of officials who fail to detect, prevent, reduce, and punish sexual violence. It was also established to protect the Eighth Amendment rights of federal, state, and local prisoners, or in our case, the youth. Sexual abuse of persons in custody is cruel and unusual punishment—a violation of our nation's Bill of Rights.

TJJJ Policies:

- GAP 380.9337. Zero Tolerance for Sexual Abuse, Sexual Activity and Sexual Harassment is TJJJ's zero-tolerance policy for any form of sexual abuse or sexual harassment of youth under TJJJ jurisdiction. This rule describes prohibited conduct and behaviors that are broader than those established by statute as violations of law. This rule sets forth standards for reporting and investigating alleged sexual abuse of TJJJ youth. This rule also addresses screening and housing placement procedures for youth who may be potential victims or perpetrators of sexual abuse.
- PRS.02.09. Staff/Youth Relationship states that the nature of the relationship of TJJJ staff, service providers, or volunteers and youth is of critical importance in efforts to influence youth in a positive manner. Employees and volunteers found to have engaged in any prohibited behavior when interacting with TJJJ youth are subject to disciplinary action. Service providers found to have engaged in any prohibited behavior when interacting with TJJJ youth will result in the termination of their contract and criminal investigation.
- GAP 380.9301. Basic Youth Rights states that TJJJ recognizes that each youth in the TJJJ system has certain basic rights, including the right to protection from physical and psychological harm.
- GAP 07.03. Incident Reporting states that critical incidents must be reported immediately to the Office of Inspector General Incident Reporting Center (IRC) and a written report must be provided to the Chief Local Administrator. Critical incidents include alleged sexual abuse of a youth, alleged sexual misconduct by a youth, and other incidents.
- GAP 380.9333. Alleged Abuse, Neglect, and Exploitation provides for the investigation of allegations of abuse, neglect, or exploitation in programs and facilities under TJJJ jurisdiction. This rule provides standards for investigations and for the compilation of investigation information.

You must report all suspected incidents of abuse, neglect, and exploitation immediately. There are no consequences for reporting alleged misconduct. TJJJ cannot retaliate against a staff, volunteer, or service provider for reporting alleged abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a youth. You are required by law to report.

Report allegations of misconduct to the Incident Reporting Center by emailing TJJJ.IRC@tjjd.texas.gov or by calling a 24-hour-a-day toll free hotline 1-866-477-8354.

Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) and Preventing Sexual Misconduct Policy Overview and Training Acknowledgment for TJJJ's Service Providers

As part of the contractual agreement with the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJJ), and to be in compliance with the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) standards, I certify and acknowledge that I have read and understand the contents of this document provided to me regarding the purpose of PREA, TJJJ's Zero Tolerance policy, and my reporting responsibilities regarding suspected and or known incidents of sexual abuse, sexual assault and sexual harassment. I further certify that I understand and have completed the online TJJJ PREA training and attached my certification of completion to this acknowledgment.
