

TEXAS JUVENILE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT
RESEARCH OR STATISTICAL PROJECT AGREEMENT
AMENDMENT 2 to CONTRACT CON0001117

The Texas Juvenile Justice Department, hereinafter the “Department”, and Johns Hopkins University, hereinafter the “Requester”, acknowledge that they have previously entered into an Agreement fully executed on November 18, 2019, for the disclosure of certain confidential juvenile justice information collected and maintained for statistical and research purposes by the Department. This contract is identified as Contract CON0001117.

Both parties represent and warrant that the individual signing this Amendment is authorized to sign this document on behalf of their party and to bind their party under this Amendment, and that the terms herein are expressly made part of the Agreement.

The parties hereto agree to be bound by the terms of the existing Agreement, including prior amendments, if any, subject to the following changes permitted pursuant to SECTION XI, GENERAL:

1. Pursuant to SECTION XI, GENERAL, the Contract is amended to replace Attachment 2 Statement of Data Security with the revised version. The revised version adds Dr. Allyn Walker and removes Dr. Reshmi Nair and Dr. Emma Beth McGinty as co-investigator for this research project.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have made and executed this Amendment as of the day and year last below written.

Statement of Data Security

Johns Hopkins University (JHU), hereinafter the “Requester,” shall take the following administrative and physical precautions to securely protect any information and/or data collected pursuant to the associated Research or Statistical Project Agreement (Agreement) or otherwise deemed confidential pursuant to the Agreement, federal law, or the laws of the State of Texas:

This is a secondary data analysis research study. We are requesting for de-identified data and it does not contain any identifying information of the individuals. All data files will be saved and backed-up on a secure JHU provided department server space. The access to data and associated documentation will be available only to the Requester and/or employees or associates of the Requester under the JHU-IRB approved data-sharing agreement for this project. All files and analysis codes from this project will be preserved for a minimum of five years after any associated publications for re-use by the research group in accordance with the JHU Data Retention Policy.

This Statement of Data Security is a binding part of the Agreement. The Requester's failure to comply with the precautions described herein may constitute a breach or default under the Agreement and entitle the Texas Juvenile Justice Department to seek any remedies for breach or default available under the Agreement or other law.
