

State Aid

A-2006-07 Biennium

Effective date 09/01/2005

Latest Revision 09/01/2005

I. GRANT DESCRIPTION.

- A. The State Aid grant provides funding to local juvenile boards to support the provision of basic juvenile probation services and juvenile justice programs to assist the juvenile board in adhering to the Commission's standards and policies.

II. GRANT SPECIFIC DEFINITIONS.

- A. Formal Referral. A formal referral occurs when all three of the following conditions exist:
1. Delinquent conduct, conduct indicating a need for supervision or violation of probation was allegedly committed;
 2. The juvenile probation department has jurisdiction and venue; and
 3. Either face-to-face contact occurs with the office or official designated by the Grantee or written or verbal authorization to detain the juvenile is given by the office or official designated by the juvenile court.
- B. Juvenile Justice Program. A program operated for the benefit of juveniles referred to the juvenile probation department that is wholly or partly operated by the juvenile board or by a private vendor under contract with the juvenile board. As defined in Texas Family Code Section 261.405, this term also includes juvenile justice alternative education programs (JJAEP) and non-residential programs that serve juveniles that have been referred to the juvenile probation department and who are under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court. A juvenile justice program does not include any program operated in a facility that is licensed or operated by a state agency other than a facility registered with the Commission.
- C. Juvenile Probation Services. Juvenile probation services means services provided to juvenile offenders under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court by or under the authority of the Grantee and provided by the juvenile probation department or other entity, including services contracted with third-party service providers, in response to a policy or directive instituted by the governing juvenile board or an order issued by a juvenile court and under the court's direction, including:
1. Protective services;
 2. Prevention of delinquent conduct and conduct indicating a need for supervision;
 3. Diversion;
 4. Deferred prosecution;
 5. Foster care;
 6. Counseling;
 7. Supervision;
 8. Diagnostic, correctional and educational services; and
 9. Services provided by a juvenile probation department that are related to the provision of services, operation of a secure pre-adjudication detention facility, a short-term detention facility (i.e., holdover), a secure post-adjudication correctional facility, a non-secure residential treatment facility, a juvenile justice alternative education program or a juvenile justice program.
- D. Non-Residential Services. A service or program provided to a juvenile who has not been placed in a residential facility or a service or program provided to a juvenile who has been placed in a residential setting, but the service or program is not included in the cost per day for the juvenile's placement. The following services/programs are considered non-residential including:
1. Psychological, psychiatric and other professional diagnostic, evaluation and therapeutic treatment services;

2. Medical and dental diagnosis, evaluation, treatment and supplies;
3. Vocational and educational fees and supplies;
4. Related programs, services, supplies and tutoring not provided by public schools;
5. Transportation and meals;
6. Clothing and personal hygiene supplies; and
7. Programs and services approved in writing in advance by the Commission including professional and contractual services.

- E. Primary Prevention Services. Programs, services and activities designed to prevent law and Family Code violations by youth identified as “at risk” of becoming juvenile offenders. These services are designed for juveniles that have not had contact with the juvenile probation department prior to the service (i.e., no formal referral has occurred).
- F. Progressive Sanctions Model. The Progressive Sanctions Model is a set of recommended graduated dispositional guidelines defined in Texas Family Code Chapter 59. The Model provides uniform and consistent standards in juvenile case dispositions, taking into account the seriousness of conduct, history of delinquent conduct, previous interventions, special treatment/training needs of the child and special circumstances of the child.
- G. Residential Services. Residential services means the provision of services to a juvenile that has been placed in a secure pre-adjudication detention facility, a short-term detention facility (i.e., holdover), a post-adjudication correctional facility, or a non-secure residential placement facility operated by or under the authority of the Grantee. This category also includes services contracted to a third-party service provider in any non-secure placement facility licensed and/or operated by or under the authority of another governmental entity under the laws of this state or another state.
- H. Staff Services. Staff services means:
1. Salaries and fringe benefits for staff employed by the juvenile probation department under the direction of the Grantee;
 2. Travel reimbursement for juvenile probation department staff for the provision of juvenile probation services, juvenile justice programs and administration; and
 3. Operating expenses for the juvenile probation department (e.g., postage, telephone, office supplies, printing and other costs, etc.) directly related to juvenile probation services, juvenile justice programs and administration.

III. PERFORMANCE MEASURES.

- A. Goal. The goal of the State Aid grant is to reduce delinquency, increase offender accountability and rehabilitate juvenile offenders through a comprehensive, coordinated, community-based juvenile probation system.
- B. Program Objective. The objective of the State Aid grant is to provide basic juvenile probation services and juvenile justice programs and to ensure the delivery of safe and effective juvenile probation services and juvenile justice programs that maximize adherence to Commission standards and policies.
- C. Program Performance. Grantee performance under the grant shall be determined using the following measures:
1. Percent change in formal referrals;
